

*Let your heart unwind
by Toji Locatelli*

Let your mind start a journey with this piece in hand and watch as it quickly unfurls. Surrender to this shawl's sweet sections of lace and seed stitch... Knitting side-to-side panels of seed stitch offers you moments of bliss as you daydream away, until gently transitioning into the next lace section. If you have never tried it before, it could be a good candidate for your first lace project!

Best of all, this simple shawl could be a perfect match for that one special skein of yarn you have stashed away for a special occasion (or maybe found at this marketplace?). It will showcase beautifully any solid color, but it will also look wonderful in multi-colored yarns. Just one skein is all you will need to construct this piece, making it the perfect gift for that special friend. I used a beautiful skein of single ply merino in fingering weight, but dare to try other yarns and weights!

Be careful though, this dynamite shawl is so sexy and pretty, it may just end up being your favorite go-to cover up in your wardrobe this summer.

Finished Measurements:

60 inches (150cm) from side to side and 16 inches (40 cm) from top to bottom at deepest point (after blocking).

Materials:

Yarn:

Cozy Merino Fingering, by WalkCollection (100% merino – 100g/400 yd): 1 skein.

Needles:

US 5 (3.75mm) knitting needles.

Gauge:

20 stitches and 28 rows to 4 inches (10 cm) in garter stitch, after blocking.

Gauge is not crucial for this project. However, changes might result in a different yardage requirement.

Directions:

The shawl is worked from end to end in one piece, formed by a sequence of wedges and bands.

The instructions are written in sections, so that it would make the row numbering easier.
